

Martin Fehr

Managing Director, Group Strategy
Principal Investments & Acquisitions, Regional Head Asia

Martin Fehr is the Regional Head Asia for Principal Investments & Acquisitions (PI&A). Based in Hong Kong, he leads a team of investment professionals focused on direct equity investments for Swiss Re in the insurance space across Asia.

Martin joined Swiss Re in 2004. Initially based in Zurich, he was part of the Alternative Investments group and involved in the development of Swiss Re's hedge fund investment strategy. From 2007 to 2010, he worked as an investment professional in Swiss Re's private equity team in New York.

In March 2010, Martin transferred to Hong Kong to oversee Swiss Re's direct investment activities in South East Asia and India. In 2015 he was appointed Regional Head of PI&A Asia.

Throughout his time at Swiss Re, Martin has been involved in various corporate development and strategy projects of the firm.

Martin graduated in economics with a specialization in finance and capital markets from the University of St. Gallen, Switzerland. During his studies he participated in an exchange with the MBA program of the Fuqua School of Business at Duke University in Durham, NC, USA. Martin Fehr is also a CFA charterholder.