We are pleased to announce that Mr Anthony Wu, Chairman of the Bauhinia Foundation Research Centre Ltd and Chairman of the Chamber, and The Hon Jeffrey Lam, one of the founders of Economic Synergy and the Chamber’s representative on the Legislative Council, will meet with Chamber members on Thursday, 17 March, 2011, as part of the “Meet the Connectors” Town Hall Forum Series. They will share with members their views on the roles of think tanks and their influence on the public policy debate in Hong Kong. They will also talk about how the voice of business in the policy development process could be strengthened.

Mr Wu is currently Chairman of the Hospital Authority. He has been a National Committee Member of the China People’s Political Consultative Conference since 1998. He is Council Member of the Hong Kong Trade Development Council and Board Member of the United Nations Association of China. He is also a Member of the Commission on Strategic Development, Member of the Greater Pearl River Delta Business Council; Council Member of the Oxford University Scholarship Fund and Honorary Fellow of the Hong Kong College of Community Medicine.

Mr Lam has over 30 years of experience in the toy industry and is currently Managing Director of Forward Winsome Industries Ltd. He is a Member of the National Committee of the Chinese People’s Political Consultative Conference. He holds a number of public and community service positions such as the Chairman of Mega Events Fund Assessment Committee, Member of the Board of the West Kowloon Cultural District Authority, Member of the Advisory Committee on Corruption of Independent Commission Against Corruption, Council Member of the Hong Kong Trade Development Council, etc. He is also the University Fellow of Tufts University, USA and The Hong Kong Polytechnic University.

The “Meet the Connectors” Series provides a unique platform to engage our members for a face-to-face discussion with policy influencers on matters affecting business and the community in general. Please return the reply slip by 10 March 2011. You can also book online at www.chamber.org.hk.
